

Mandated Reporter Training

Please join JFCS East Bay's Prevention and Early Intervention program in collaboration with the Child Abuse Prevention Council for a training on California State Law to report suspected child abuse and neglect. The issues of child abuse and the legal responsibilities imposed by the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act are discussed.

The training covers a range of child abuse related topics, including:

- What constitutes reasonable suspicion
- Definitions of child abuse
- Physical and behavioral indicators
- Family dynamics and risk indicators for abuse
- Environmental risk factors
- What is not abuse
- Multicultural considerations
- Statistics for Contra Costa County
- The California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act
- Reporting procedures, protections, privileges and penalties for Mandated Reporters

Training will be live via ZOOM
Friday September 23rd, 2022
11am - 1pm
